

Overdue

---

1

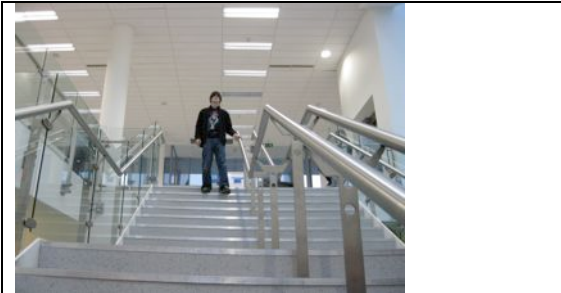

WINSTON, a young teenager, walks through the automatic doors...

2

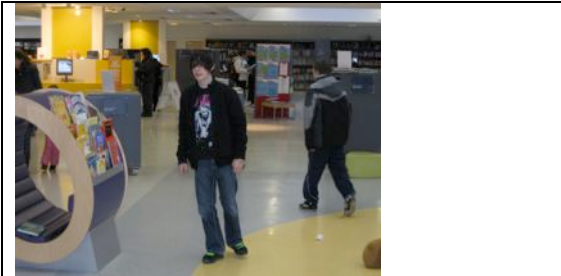

3

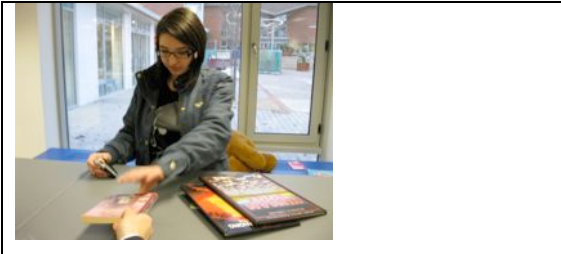

...and down the stairs.

4

He looks around. Then he walks to the desk and leaves back some books.

5

The librarian checks his books. On her desk sits a cute teddy bear. She wears a teddy bear jumper and a hair band. She says nothing but stamps 'Over due' repeatedly. Winston looks at the librarian. She looks back. She is young, brunette and looks bored. They stand there looking at each other.

---

6

The clock ticks, time passes.

7

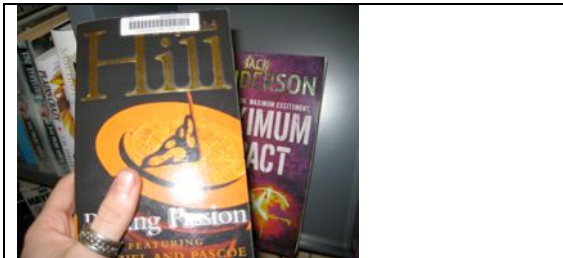

Winston walks up and down the aisles full of library books.

8

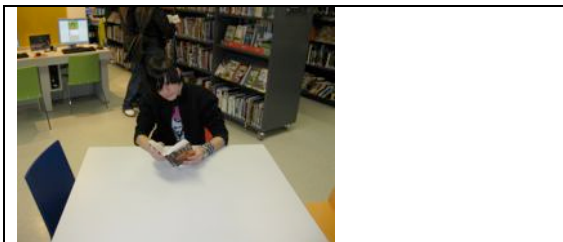

He is searching for something. He peers across shelves and we see the library from his pov.

9

He finds what he is looking for.

10

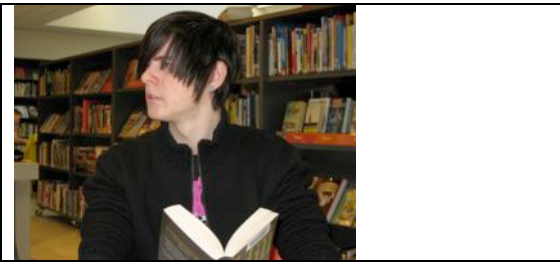

Winston sits down with his book.

11

He turns the pages of his book slowly. He is engrossed in the book.

12

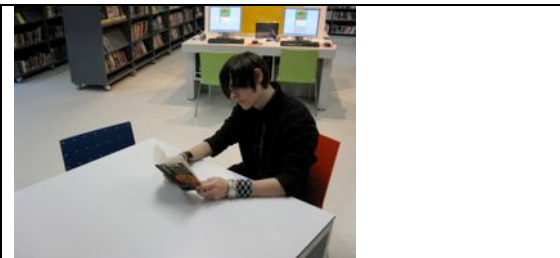

He hears a weird noise and looks up.

13

There is nothing there, but the library seems more dimly lit than before. He stares around the library we follow his stare. He looks over his shoulder.

14

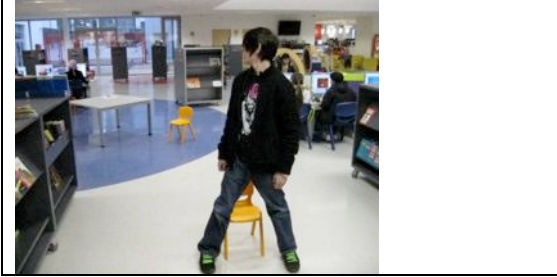

He starts to read his book again.

15

Winstons shifts uncomfortably in his chair. Suddenly a loads of books fall out of the shelf above.

16

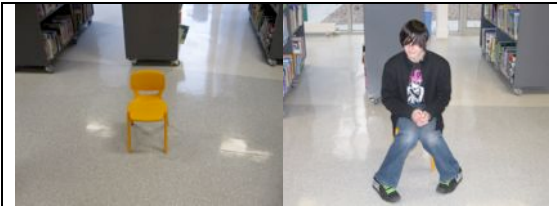

Winston is startled and jumps to his feet. He looks around there is no-one there. He decides to move and grabs his stuff.

17

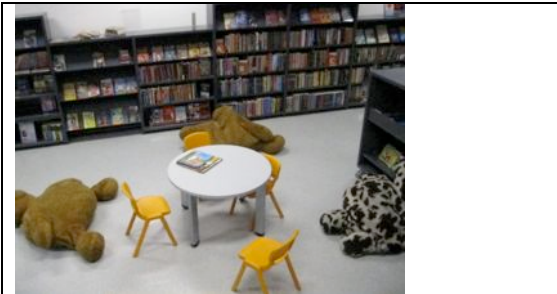

He looks around there is no-one there. He decides to move and grabs his stuff.

18

Winston goes to the well lit childrens section. He puts his stuff down and sits comically in a small chair. He is far too big for it.

19

Small yellow chairs surround a small table. Stuffed toys lie on the ground. The books are in neat piles. Round purple chairs/desks sit to his left and right.

20

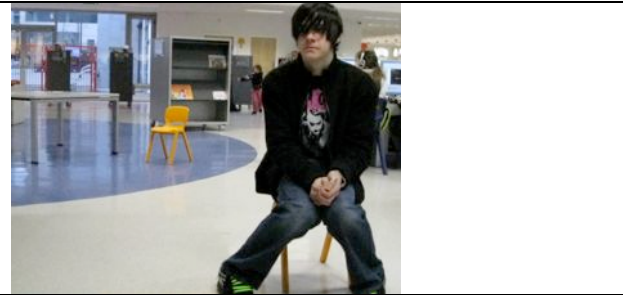

Winston looks around him and then continues to read his book. Reveal he is reading 'The teddy bear complex'.

21

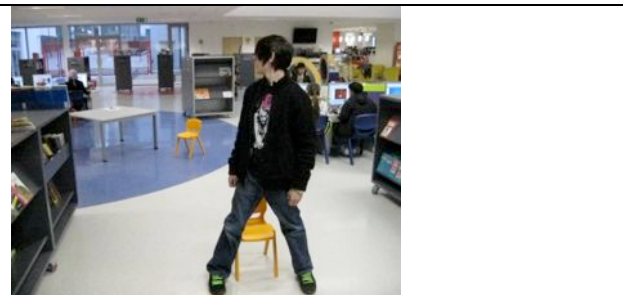

C U on a bear. He appears to be looking at Winston.

22

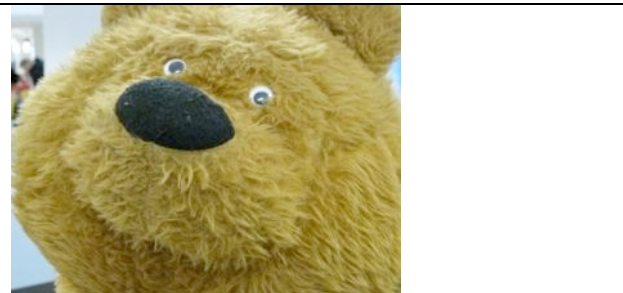

Suddenly a small yellow chair flies across the room.

23

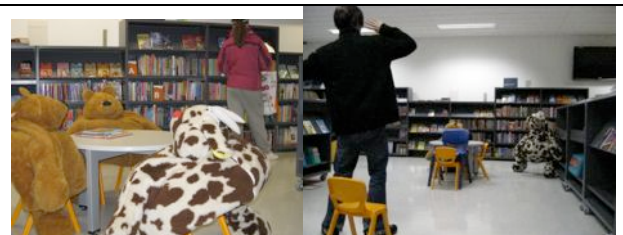

Winston jumps up and looks around.

24

The bear still stares at him. Winston doesn't flinch.

25

Winston looks over his shoulder and back again. Now the bear is joined by his other stuffed toy friends.

26

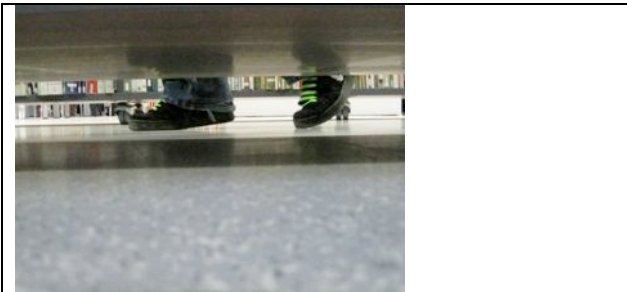

Winston runs through the shelves.

27

The bears advance.

28

We see Winston's feet running frantically along under the shelves...

29

...he is followed by tiny dolls feet and teddy bear feet chasing it.

30

Winston makes it to the foot of the stairs. He stumbles the teddy motley crew is fast approaching.

31

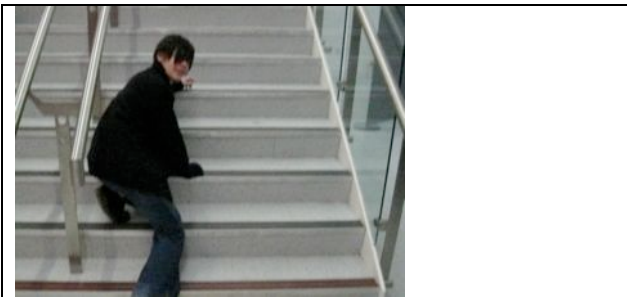

Above him looms the librarian.

Winston: Help me missus!

The librarian strokes her teddy who is now settled inside her jumper. We can now see that she is part teddy herself and controls the mass of motley stuffed animals.

32

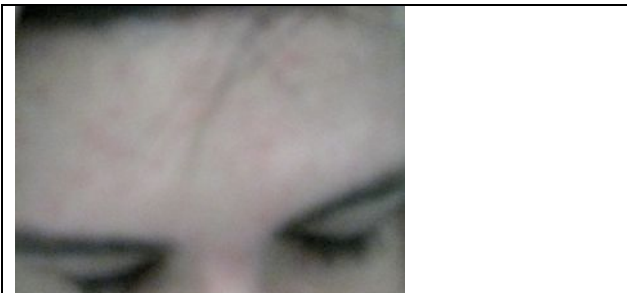

Winston dragging himself up the steps.

33

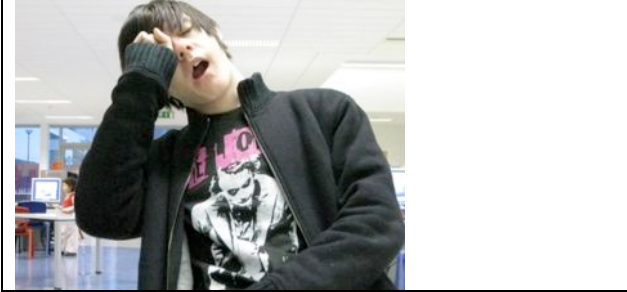

The librarian starts to stamp his fingers and then finally stamps over due on his forehead. We see Winston's forehead with words 'overdue' clearly embedded.

34

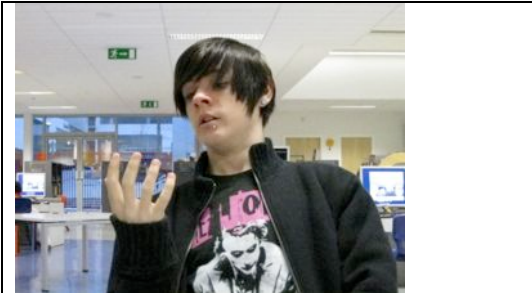

We see Winston's forehead with words 'overdue' clearly embedded.

35

Winstons yawns and rubs his eyes.

36

He looks at his hand, it is covered in blood. 'Teddy Bear's Picnic' music comes up slowly. Winston panics.

37

Suddenly we see the teddy bears staring at him, empty cans of beer lie scattered around and they are looking menacingly at Winston. Winston is afraid. His feet are bound, and he is slumped against a book shelf.

38

The teddy ring leader is the librarian and she commands the teddies with a snap of her fingers.

39

The teddy's bears picnic music comes up loudly and a teddy picks up a porcelain handle hammer and swings it menacingly like a 'goodfella' extra. We see his furry back fill the screen and the music gets louder and louder.

40

We hear winstons screams and fade to black.